Greetings,

Once again, construction ____-ups (fill it in yourself) push our broadcast date back a few weeks. Total Frustration has set in. However, on the bright side, this extra time is giving us the chance to sound twice as good on the air.

Also on the bright side, service is excellent. Getting stuff from just about everybody. (Not meaning to sound like an Academy Awards presentation, but . . .). Thanks to everyone for their cooperation.

Last, but not least--in case you haven't noticed, playlists have been cut down to bi-weekly. This may change later, but it will remain this way for a while. Until next Bat-time,

Joel Gartland
